

The Career Key™

Solutions for College Administrators

Our strengths: simplicity, practicality & validity. Website trusted by counselors since 1997.

How can I help students get better grades, and for some, increase graduation rates?
Is there a proven, high-quality, affordable solution?

As a professor at N.C. State University, I worked with career development professionals at the NCSU's First Year College, Career Services, and Counseling center - and those at Duke and Carolina. We developed The Career Decision Profile, The Career Key, and other career planning materials, now used in a variety of higher education settings.

I recommend,

Using The Career Key™ Test to spark students' exploration and good decision-making:

- Measure the strength of 6 Holland personality types,
- Identify matching jobs,
- Get accurate information about each occupation,
- Download a 4 page booklet that explains the results, and
- Use the results with our e-books to identify matching career pathways, majors and training programs.
- Cost: $1 per test, Group Discount

Visiting The Career Key Manual online: Transparency is important.

Research show that a good personality-career match predicts better grades and higher career satisfaction (if you use a valid test).

Choosing a College Major or Training Program that fits students' personality.

- In this online article, learn how to make this match with a 4-step process,
- A close interest-major match is vital, a predictor of academic success & satisfaction (grades & graduation),
- Our companion e-book, The Education Key, links the Holland personality types to all 1,300 college majors and training programs.

Identifying & strengthening job skills.

- An important part of students' education is learning the job skills needed for future work.
- The Foundation Skills: Job Skills All Workers Need describes what they are. From Free Agent Outlook on Work, students learn the importance of marketable skills.

Assessing "career decision status".

- Colleges use The Career Decision Profile to evaluate career development programs, assess career decision needs, and in career counseling.
- Students find the article "Career Indecision" a helpful guide.

Making good decisions.

- High Quality Decisions describes steps in making a good decision.
- Learning how to make good decisions is a "Foundation Skill."
- You will want students to learn and use this skill with important decisions. See more in our e-Book:
- The 2010 What Job is Best For Me?

Exploring our high quality websites:

- Green Economy explained with Green Jobs organized by personality,
- Our e-Bookstore offers many "green", sustainable PDFs that will help you.
- Your purchase is an important way to support our efforts: 10% of website sales go to charities like The Nature Conservancy & UNICEF.
- Join us on The Career Key Blog, Facebook (CareerKey) & Twitter (TheCareerKey) to stay in touch and up to date.
