

What will I do when I grow up?
What subjects will I study in High School? College?
What kind of work will I do?

Recommended ways
The Career Key™ can help:

Take The Career Key™ Test

- Measure the strength of your 6 Holland personality types,
- Identify matching jobs,
- Get accurate information about each occupation,
- Download a 4 page booklet that explains the results, and
- Use your results with our e-books to identify matching career pathways, college majors and training programs.

Identify and strengthen your job skills.

- Job skills are what count in the workplace.
- With marketable skills, you are in the driver's seat.
- The Foundation Skills: Job Skills All Workers Need describes what they are.

Middle School is a good time to explore.... to learn about jobs and school options.

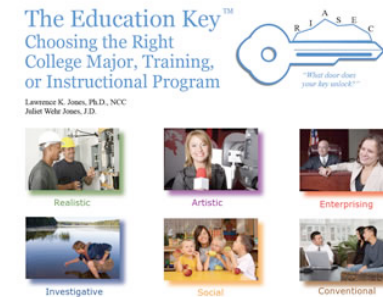

Choose a Career Cluster, Career Field or Pathway that fits your personality.

- Our helpful online article explains clusters and pathways,
- Explore our e-book, 5 Steps to Choosing the Right Career Cluster, Field, or Pathway.
- It is the only science-based source for matching Holland personality types to career pathways.

Make good decisions.

- High Quality Decisions describes steps in making a good decision.
- Learning how to make good decisions is a "Foundation Skill."
- You will want to learn this skill, and use it when you make important decisions.

Choose a College Major or Training Program that fits your personality.

- In this online article, learn how to make this match following a 4-step process,
- A close interest-major match is important,
- Our companion e-book, The Education Key, links the Holland personality types to all 1,300 college majors and training programs.

Learn about Dr. John Holland's Theory of Career Choice.

- This article is one of our most popular.
- Our e-Book, What Color Are Your Feathers?, describes his theory and explains how to apply it to career and education choices.